Our Story:

Islamic Centre of Britain is an ambitious project of Qadria Trust, a UK registered Charity based in Birmingham (UK). Qadria Trust has been providing many services to the community since 2005 including but not limited to:

-  A Local Masjid
-  Friday & Eid Prayer Facilities
-  Evening Classes for Children
-  Dispute Resolution Service
-  Hot Food Bank
-  Matrimonial Services
-  & Much Much More!

Currently the Trust operates from 26 Alfred Street Sparkbrook Birmingham, B12 8DL (UK). The existing premises can not accomodate the demand for the services and in 2009 it was decided to embark on this journey of creating Islamic Centre of Britain to address the current and future needs of the community.

Our Vision:

To contribute in creating a harmonious and cohesive society where every individual is respected & empowered. This will be achieved by:

-  Reviving the Prophetic model of what a Masjid is meant to be
-  Catering to the needs of the diverse community, including the young and old, men and women, rich and poor, Muslim and non-Muslim

Our Mission:

To build a unique facility of outstanding beauty and modern architecture in Birmingham,UK to serve, educate and inspire people to have a positive role in building cohesive and sustainable communities at a spiritual, social, and cultural levels.
